STEPS FORWARD TO INTERNATIONALIZATION

“Best practices exchanges for internationalization of higher education” Workshop
November, 14th-15th - Sibiu, “Lucian Blaga” University

INTEGRATION an important issue in the internationalization process:

What does integration mean and why is it important?

- To integrate people is to put them together to form a new group and keep their individual characteristics
- The important thing about integration is that the individual culture, and members of cultural communities, are welcomed and accepted for what they are.

...and this is our policy

- Valuing integration tends to be our policy in the internationalization process and it will be held through the following steps:
 - orientation and welcome services (Students associations, welcome week, cultural events)
 - organization of International weeks
 - workshops, seminars

The major objectives:

- To develop and intensify the process through identifying and establishing agreements with universities in Europe and around the world on the basis of similarity in relation to the areas of teaching, research and innovation.
- The active participation in international mobility programs to increase the capacity for internationalization
- To be involved more actively in programs such as Erasmus +, CEEPUS, AUF - scholarship program "Eugen Ionesco", DAAD, Marie Curie, Fulbright and others

Erasmus+

- Erasmus+ is one of the main programs that have increased the number of our university mobility, mobility aimed both to students and teachers or administrative staff.
- Regarding this, our university aims further to increase mobility in the next years
- It is expected to increase mobility in Erasmus+ program at a rate of up to 30%.

Erasmus+

How are we doing this?

- In order to increase the number of mobility in the Erasmus+ program our university will create a possible financial support, when the demand for mobility exceeds.
- To attract a larger number of foreign students, we will create study programs in foreign languages.

... OUR Vision?

- Growing scientific cooperation relations with international institutions and personalities is a goal of any university wishing to be aware of scientific and organizational trends of specific professions and, equally, wishes to assert itself internationally.
- The larger internationalization of education by implementing new courses in foreign languages, separately and / or in collaboration with foreign institutions, inviting teachers and researchers from prestigious institutions abroad, achieving doctorates in collaboration, offering scholarships abroad and the continued participation in EU mobility programs.

UNIVERSITATEA DE ȘTIINȚE AGRONOMICE
ȘI MEDICINĂ VETERINARĂ – BUCUREȘTI

- Increasing the number of beneficiaries from USAMV Bucharest in programs and research scholarships abroad offered by the Ministry of Education and Research through the Agency of Loans and Scholarships
- Creating the proper environment to attract as many PhD students or postdoctoral students in the scholarship program "Eugen Ionesco" offered by AUF and make available to applicants our entire research base, for maximizing the use of research in the field requested

- USAMV Bucharest will support students to participate in actions concerning volunteering and internship and will create optimal conditions for institutions or foreign specialized companies in order to make this demand possible and help them to develop their knowledge
- Organizing the annual International Conference "Agriculture for Life - Life for Agriculture" that provides our employees, collaborators and foreign partners an excellent opportunity to promote and disseminate the results of their work in education and scientific research in agriculture and related fields
